

Job Title: COMMUNITY EDUCATION & CULTURAL TECHNICIAN

Date: February 1, 2019 – New Position

The Saskatchewan Indigenous Cultural Centre (SICC) invites applications for the position of Community Education and Cultural Technician. We are seeking an individual to join our team and be a significant source of cultural knowledge to staff, First Nation communities and non-First Nation organizations, in the preservation and revitalization of Saskatchewan First Nations languages, cultures and history.

Reporting to the Community Education and Language Specialist, the position is integral to meeting the goals and objectives of the SICC: to provide a First Nations resource base for bands and school systems to draw upon so that First Nations children may accurately inherit the values and traditions of their ancestry; to advocate the preservation of First Nations' languages, cultures, traditional arts and history; to assist in developing traditional and contemporary cultural skills of First Nations.

Qualifications:

- Undergraduate degree in education or a closely related field
- Fluent in one of the Saskatchewan First Nation languages
- Knowledge of First Nations cultures, histories, protocols and practices
- Saskatchewan 'A' Teaching Certificate or demonstrated equivalency
- Proficient in the Microsoft Office suite of programs; familiar with database systems

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

- Knowledge of culturally appropriate ways of working with First Nation people, communities and governments.
- Familiarity with best practices and meaningful First Nation language teaching activities.
- Understanding of the cultural diversity among First Nation people of Saskatchewan. Understands and shows respect for local cultures and cultural practices.
- Strong writing and editing skills.
- Ability and willingness to travel (holds a valid Saskatchewan Drivers' License and owns a reliable vehicle)
